a 7-Day retreat in Bali, Indonesia

Sunday March 11 - Sunday March 18, 2018

The magical Indonesian island of Bali inspires the innocent beautiful being deep within each of us into remembering the truth that Heaven does exist here on Earth. It exists within us and all around us. Bali beckons to us to feel into the natural, effortless ways to cultivate the conditions that nurture and nourish our dreams, which are sourced in pure potentiality. Join us, and allow Bali to bless you with experiences that draw you into living a life that is infinitely pleasing.

Weaving Heaven and Earth is a 7-day inner + outer exploration retreat in Northern Bali. While exploring exquisitely beautiful island sites that surround us, we immerse ourselves in our most human responses. We explore and discover that which interferes with creating a life from the limitless potential of Heaven, then choose how to weave dreams, ideas and potential into a life that is worth living on earth.
